

STJ Advisors is pleased to welcome Takeo Kusunose to its Advisory Board

Takeo joins Frank Dangeard, Rick Medlock, Melville Mummert and Rupert Hume-Kendall on the STJ Advisory Board.

Takeo currently sits on the board of several companies (including AI inside, Inc.) and is a Former Vice Chairman of Merrill Lynch Japan Securities having previously headed the firm's Equity Capital Markets department.

He worked as a head of the firm's Investment Banking Division, where he advised Japanese companies on financial and management strategy. He has extensive experience in large cross-border and domestic M&A, government privatizations, large-scale IPOs and debt and equity financing. Takeo began his career at Nomura Securities.

He holds a B.A. in Economics from Keio University and an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

